THE ISSUES WITH HUMAN WASTE

PROBLEM

We know that bathrooms aren’t something you typically find in the field. And stopping in transit can be impossible.

So we’ve developed state-of-the-art products that prevent spills, splashbacks, and contact with waste. In a situation where feces could reveal your position, there is an advantage to being able to easily transport waste and deposit it in a secure location.

American Innotek supplies to military and government agencies the U.S. Military and FEMA in military theaters around the globe.

Providing simple, safe, and easy to use bathroom solutions for servicemen and women is our mission.

SOLUTION

American Innotek’s human waste management solutions are proudly Made in America and are considered best in class supporting thousands every day. Sanitary, convenient and portable for every mission or exercise.
